Judge Carroll Announces.

Judge John D. Carroll, who succeeded Judge Cantrill on the bench of the Court of Appeals, Tuesday, made formal announcement that he will be a candidate to fill out the term, at the election before the people in November. When asked his intentions in the matter, Judge Carroll said:

"Yes, I will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination. I have long desired a seat on the Appellate bench and now that I have been appointed to the position, would be glad to have an election by the people. The profession is familiar with my work as Commissioner of Appeals, and can judge by it of my fitness and qualifications for the place."

Friends of Judge Carroll say that it seems probable that he will have no opposition for the Democratic nomination.

Christian Church Assembly.

The Christian church is to hold an Assembly in the Penn Camp Grounds at Mt. Olivet, Ky., July 3-14. W. H. Book, of Columbus, Ind., one of the greatest evangelists in America, is to have charge of the evangelistic work, and the various church interests are to be discussed by the leader in the church during the sessions of the Assembly. Cottages will be rented on the grounds and arrangements made to care for at least one thousand people. This promises to be a matter of unusual interest as it is a new venture on the part of the Christian church in Kentucky.

Unwritten Law.

Say what you will about "the unwritten law" there is a solemn warning in a code which provides that he who is mean enough to destroy what is more precious than life, by the act forfeits his own life. Humanity enters eternal protest against any theory which keeps one from killing the wolf that destroys the lamb.

Now Going On.

Those who are wise and need a refrigerator will put in a sealed bid on the handsome refrigerator on display in Wheeler's window. No one knows what the other bids are, put in your bid and you may get the refrigerator for a song.

Showed Appreciation.

Apropos of the fact that there are many entertainments of various sorts, of which the promoters neglect to invite the press, after it has done them the following gratuitous advertising, we reproduce the following, which a neighboring Fair Association had printed on the passes of the newspaper man: "This ticket has probably been paid for a dozen times over by the paper to which it is issued. It will be honored in the hands of any man, woman or child, white or black, red or yellow, who favors the Association by presenting it. It is good for entrance and grand stand, and the bearer, if driving, will be entitled to pass a team free. The Association recognizes the fact that its splendid success is owing largely, if not wholly, to the notices so freely given it by the press, and while we can not render an equivalent in cash, we return our grateful thanks."

Queer Suit For Damages.

A waiter in a Louisville hotel got gay with the cook and received a sound drubbing. The waiter sued the proprietor of the hotel for damages on the ground that he had "failed and refused to inform the plaintiff that the cook was a dangerous man." That goes the limit. Most people who get licked feel aggrieved that some one did not tell them better, but to hold the employer responsible is a new wrinkle.

Dr. Blanton To Retire.

Dr. L. H. Blanton of Danville, will this month round out fifty years of active service in the ministry and educational work of his church. It is unofficially announced that he is going to retire from his official relation to Central University with the close of the college in June, and to enjoy the well earned rest to which he undoubtedly is entitled. Dr. Blanton has for years been the mainstay of the university, and his name was linked with the old school from its founding to the consolidation. He is held in affectionate remembrance by the old C. U. boys.

Dr. Blanton is the father of Mrs. E. M. Dickson, of this city, and was the pastor of the Second Presbyterian church here for fifteen years previous to him connecting himself with Central University.

Be On Time.

The bids will be opened at the Dutch Auction on Saturday, June 8 at 2 o'clock. All persons having put in sealed bids must be present or the next bid will be accepted. If you haven't put in one today is the time.

Meeting Of Fiscal Court.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court met Tuesday with the entire Board of Magistrates present. Judge Dundon called the court to order, and owing to the fact that he was engaged in his private office taking depositions, asked Esquire Fletcher Mann to preside over the deliberations of the court.

Squire Barlow called up for consideration the building with macadam the dirt road extending from Silas Church to the Cummings pike, a distance of two miles.

Mr. B. F. Buckley, of near Jacksonville, was present and exhibited a list of contributors aggregating $1,050. The Court took the matter under advisement, appointing Esquires Barlow and Keller a committee to take up the matter and personally go over the route with Mr. Buckley.

The following orders were passed: Instructing the Road Supervisor to relet the contract for the building of a bridge on the Millersburg & Cynthia pike, near Tailbot Bros' P. S. See, the former contractor, failing to give bond. That $3 per month be placed in the hands of Squire Anderson for the support of Lucy Carson.

That order was drawn in favor of George Alexander & Co., on the general fund, bearing 6 per cent. interest, to pay over check.

That $1,500 be placed to the credit of the Turnpike Supervisor for the use during the month of June, and that he be granted further time in the matter of the Coulthard Mill road and further advertise for bids.

Claims against the county aggregating $835.39 were allowed and warrants for payment ordered drawn.

Contractors on the county roads were paid the sum of $7,190.38 for repairs and bridge construction.

Farmers were allowed claims for the killing of sheep by dogs as follows: Thomas Henry Clay, $50; L. H. Reynolds, $105; A. G. Jones, $303.75, and W. T. Redmon, $9.

A Well-Dressed Man

Is always a pleasant sight and generally gets the "second look." Clothes do not make the man, but they are a pretty good indication of his worth, for they reflect his respect for himself and the men he associates with. No man can over-rate the value of being well dressed. Correctness in one's attire marks the man of thought and many a man owes his success to his appearance.
